

EYE FOR AN EYE

Written by : Nate Pyfer, Scott Shepard, Mason Porter, Chris Crabb, and Chase Baker

You love to argue with me hey don't you baby
You only kiss with the sharpest tongue
I've had to tune out your voice, only noise lately
You scream so hard you collapse a lung

I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
Cuz you tore out my heart

The way you love me is such a crime
My love is blind

If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
Cuz you tore out my heart

You hit the bottle throw a drink in my face
You freak out in my car then kissing on me backstage
There's something sexy about the way that you rage
I love to hate you I'm glad we're on the same page

The way you love me is such a crime
My love is blind

If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
Cuz you tore out my heart

I can't take the way that you move on the dance floor
Cuz you let me down
You broke my heart now I'm here to settle the score

If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
I'll be justified when I tear out your heart
If it's an eye for an eye
