

FAINT OF HEART

Written by : Chris Crabb and Jesse Hart Williams

Feel the room get colder
You can rest your head
On my shoulder

Won't you
Move a little closer
Won't you
Come and sit close to me

Cuz I've been waiting forever
Waiting on this to start
Can you lend me your hand
I'm a little too faint of heart

In this moment together
Though we feel worlds apart
Can you lend me your hand
I'm a little too faint of heart

A little too faint of heart
Oh oh
A little too faint of heart
Oh oh

You tell me with your eyes
That you won't hold back
Tonight

I'm still
Hoping that it's alright
I'm still hoping that your heart will see

That I've been waiting forever
Waiting on this to start
Can you lend me your hand
I'm a little too faint of heart

In this moment together
Though we feel worlds apart
Can you lend me your hand
I'm a little too faint of heart

A little too faint of heart
Oh oh
A little too faint of heart
Oh oh
