

PLEASE

Written by : Chase Baker and Chris Crabb

I see your headlights coming from a mile away
I see those red lights your running Lookin like you're here to stay

I feel your heartbeat gunning me down cuz you just couldn't find nobody else on the pavement

And you've been trying to make it happen with your fingertips
But I'mma need to hear it from your lips

Honey say please, I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back baby if you'd just say please | I'll fight for you baby if you just say please

I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
I'd take you back maybe if you'd just say please | I'll fight for you baby if you just say please

You play too cold to admit it
You really think I can't (don't) see
Go ahead and take another minute
And say it to me

Cuz you've been trying to make it happen with your fingertips
But I'mma need to hear it from your lips

Honey say please, I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back baby if you'd just say please | I'll fight for you baby if you just say please

I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back if you'd just say please | I'll fight for you baby if you just say please

I'll fight for you
But you need to ask
I'll give you one more chance
Just say the word and I'll take you back

Honey say please, I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
I'll take you back baby if you'd just say please | I'll fight for you baby if you just say please

I won't let you down
so don't walk yourself out
